++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Murky and mild, with clear spells to follow.

Today:
A grey and in places foggy start, with some patches slow to clear. A largely dry, bright and mild day following, with a freshening breeze. Perhaps the off shower in the west for a time. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Inclement conditions from the evening onwards, as winds strengthen and bands of rain push across the country, sometimes heavy. Risk of gales in exposed areas. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
Overnight rain soon clears, leaving behind heavy showers and bright spells. Breezy throughout, but turning drier in the evening. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Bright and blustery Wednesday with showers, occasionally heavy. Becoming milder with heavy rain overnight into Thursday, with further showers and sunny spells. Strong winds and heavy rain Friday.
